Mrs. Olive Skemp Arranges Art Exhibit Which is Interesting.

MANY WORKS ARE BEING SHOWN

Mrs. Mary Hurley Armor talks at United Brethren Church on "Volstead Act," folks prepare to entertain veterans on Appomattox Day.

SCOTTDALE April 6—Mrs. Olive Skemp is having an art exhibit at the rooms of the Scottdale Electric company on Pittsburg street. For the past 10 years art has been taught in the public schools and was felt the one way to know whether any talent had been developed was to have an exhibition at which work might be displayed. Mrs. Skemp has made rapid strides in art and is recognized for her ability not only in Scottdale but in New York as well. If there is any talent displayed these exhibitions held once each year should stimulate the work of art in the community and student results should be shown. It is believed Mrs. Skemp is showing oil portraits of Phil McWilliams, Pauline Miller, Harold Atwood, Miss H. R. Parker, Stella Weddel, Nancy Skemp, Miss F. R. Campbell, Virginia Cingolani, Zella Lowe, Dr. O. J. Hess, Mrs. Warren Scott and A. J. Scott. Along with these are shown six paintings that Miss Skemp made when she first began painting.

Mrs. C. F. Ans art teacher in the Scottdale schools, has an exhibition an oil portrait of Mary Lou Hopkins, three studies in colors and a figure study.

Mrs. M. M. Stoen has two water colors and one drawing. Kathleen McLeod has a drawing. John Paul Tedrow has drawings. John Hull our H. decorated done in oil.

In the high school with 200 exhibits Dorothy Steinman got first mention. Others who have work on exhibition are Margaret Schaffer, Rosella Miller, Miles Horne, Madeleine Hawk and Florence Williams. In design Margaret Campbell got first mention. In decorative little miss Esther Howell, Alice Detweiler, Edna Heifer, Mrs. Mac Ivie, Dorothy M. and Kathleen Horne did well in their display. For limited charcoal, Dorothy Steinman got first mention. The eighth grade girls who get mention were Roberta Linger and our Gene Mar.

THE PENNSYLVANIA SUNDAY.

The vote of 141 against to 39 in favor of the McCann bill which would give to wards, townships, boroughs and other political subdivisions of the state the right to vote upon the question of having baseball, football and other games and sports on Sunday, is rather emphatic notice to that element in our population which is striving to establish the Continental Sunday that the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania do not intend to forget the traditions going with the first day of the week. Only the week preceding the Fish committee of the House emphasized the same fact when it unanimously voted to negative a bill designed to legalize Sunday fishing.

True, we hold the so-called "Blue Laws" in rather light esteem, and may wink at more or less flagrant violations of them, but the great mass of the people of the state will rise in their might whenever a suggestion is offered to annul these laws, or modify them to the extent of legalizing the things they expressly prohibit. This attitude is inexplicable to the advocates of measures to make Sunday the same as the week days insofar as relates to permitting sports and amusements, but there is a firmly grounded belief that a break down of the historical observance of the Lord's Day, as practiced from the days of William Penn until now would ultimately destroy the very foundations of a custom and habit which has had a very important influence on the morale of the American people and given to Pennsylvania a marked distinction among the states.

Opposition to the measures which are or have been proposed for a liberalization of the Sunday laws does not mean that the people are narrow and bigoted in their interpretation of the laws, but that they intend to be impartial in their regulation of the conduct of people who have different views on this question. It does mean, however, that Pennsylvanians are committed to the time-honored observance of Sunday as one of the distinctly American institutions inherited from the fathers, and are resolutely determined to prevent the commercialization of the day, which would be the inevitable consequence of the enactment of laws destructive of or engaging upon the day as we have so long understood it, even though practically all of us do not observe it in strict accordance with our understanding.

The Germans will have no difficulty in understanding what Secretary of State Hughes has to say about responsibility for the war, reparations and peace, even if he does not express his thoughts in German.

Ervin Bergdolt has learned that Uncle Sam's notice by mail is sufficient to make a slacker out of any male who disregarded it.

The first day of the week will continue to be Sunday, not All-Sports Day, in Pennsylvania.

"DO IT WITH ALL THY MIGHT"

Baltimore Manufacturers Record.
 Build that house now; construct that highway at once; build that school, that church; repair that broken pavement; build that garage, and even that chicken coop, now—not tomorrow.

Go ahead with your plans; speed the nation on the road to full employment, and thus hasten the day of individual and national prosperity and safety.

Preach this from the pulpit, ye ministers of the Gospel; act it from the pews, ye laymen who profess a love for humanity; put it into effect, ye county, municipal and State officials; ye business men of America, ye men of "big business" and ye men of "little business," that there is something in this infinitely higher and more important than the small amount of money involved which you think you could save by waiting.

Some men put off the day of salvation, expecting to attend to it on their death bed, but not many ever succeed in doing it at that hour. "Do it now, and do it with all your might," should be the motto of every man in America who expects to do any construction work in the near future. "Do it now," and thus do your part toward individual and national business salvation—and even more.

Procrastination is more than the thief of time; it is the murderer of opportunity.

TOMMY PHILLIPS SIGNED AS OPPONENT OF JOHNNY DONNELLY HERE APRIL 15

Tube City Fighter Has Greatly Improved and is Going Well, is Claimed.

WORK ON PRELIMINARIES

Tommy Phillips, the heavy-bitting boxer-fighter of McKeesport is the selection of Matchmaker Duke Barry to oppose Johnny Donnelly, formerly of Uniontown, now of New York, in the star bout of 10 rounds which will feature the show of the Fayette Athletic club at Slavish hall on the night of Friday, April 15.

Barry chose the Tube City battler on account of his aggressiveness and because Phillips, he says, is a vastly improved fighter since his last appearance here. Donnelly and Phillips have met on two occasions. Each claims a victory. But since their last meeting both boys have spread out considerably in the heat game. Donnelly has made a good record in New York and New Jersey rings, while Phillips has been going along in winning style in Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

While no championship is at stake in this bout, it will be an important one to the two men. Should Phillips defeat the former countryman he will upset the best late plan of Dan Morgan, Johnny's manager, as Morgan has been priming his new protege for a bout with Benny Leonard, to take place next fall. If Donnelly wins decisively over Tommy, it will enable him to secure a bout with Johnny Ray in Pittsburgh. Incidentally Phillips has been tentatively matched with Ray, the bout to take place at McKeesport, but the match depends on the outcome of the bout here Friday.

Now that the star bout has been arranged Barry will get at work on his preliminary bouts. These will be above the standard, he says. Duke is planning to show new faces in these bouts.

NEW BASEBALL TEAM IS BEING ORGANIZED FOR LOWER YOUGH DISTRICT

Cream of Dawson, Dickerson Run and Vanderbilt to Form Nucleus.

FRANK TARR IS BACKER

According to information received yesterday a new team may prove the champions of the Yough Valley this season. An aggregation that may be known as the Yough Valley Independents, including players from Florence Mines, Dawson, Dickerson Run and Vanderbilt, is to be organized at once and preparations are already under way to open the season next month.

The team is the result of the efforts of Frank Tarr of Dawson, backer of the Florence Mines team last season, and others. Because of a shut down of the mines baseball could not be continued at that plant alone this year.

On the team will be Houshberger of the Dunbar township high school "Sauces" Miller, who played at times for the Connellsville Independents last season, and other local ball players. Randolph and Ronkne, two of last year's mainslays, will also be back. A left-handed pitcher and a heavier catcher are now wanted.

The grandstand on the Dickerson Run grounds, where all games will be played, is to be enlarged and the diamond will be put in shape for playing.

TENNIS SEASON OPENS; COURTS ARE COMPLETED

Connellsville's tennis season opened yesterday afternoon when John Brown and Fred Seaman took over the courts of the Connellsville Tennis Association after they had been watered and rolled. The courts at present are in fairly good shape and will be improved as the season grows older. At present they are not as fast as during last summer.

April 5 is as early as tennis ever started in Connellsville and the interest being shown already indicates a big year.

MURDOCKS WIN DECISIVELY OVER GREENSBURG LEGION

Detroit F. Moorehead
Kline F. Hammer

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find relief with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

Dr. P. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know this by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 90c.

A Lesson of Today.

Present conditions have brought home to many a full realization of what it means to have a savings account to tide over in times of unemployment.

If this lesson has come to you only by observation of someone else, instead of by bitter experience—it should be the strongest possible argument in favor of starting a savings account with The Citizens National Bank, or of adding more regularly to one already begun.—Adv.

The strikers agreed to allow the mail trains to run without interruption with our promise that they would not carry passengers. Hopkins and his committee bucked a little at this but got down when they were shown that they could not afford to risk a clash with the Government. This exception admitted, another followed as a matter of course. If the mail trains were to be run, some of the telegraph operators would have to remain on duty, at least to the extent of handling train orders.

With these generalities out of the way, we got down to details. Fire-alarm wires were sent to the various cities and towns on the lines asking for immediate information regarding food and fuel supplies and the strike leaders were notified that for sheer humanity's sake they would have to permit the handling of provision trains in cases where they were abiding train orders.

By eleven o'clock the jungle was getting itself pretty well straightened out. Some of the trains had already been abandoned and the others were moving along to the agreed upon destinations. Kieran had taken hold in the Portal City yard and by putting on extra crews was getting the needed shifting and car sorting into shape and the Portal City employees acting upon their own initiative were picking the yard and company buildings to protect them from looting or fire setting. Mr. Van Bitt's special so the wires told us was at Westerburg and it was told us to stay there, and Mr. Van Bitt himself couldn't be reached.

It was at half past eleven that we got the first real info from somebody who was getting pinched. It came in the shape of a wire from the Strathcona branch operator. A party of men—“mine owners”—the operator called them—had just heard of the impending railroad tie up. They had been meaning to come in on the regular night train, but that had been abandoned. So now they were offering all kinds of money for a special to bring them to Portal City. It was represented that there were millions at stake. Couldn't we do something?

Mr. Norcross had kept Hopkins and a few of the other local strike leaders where he could get hold of them and he put the request up to them to issue a notice that was now out of his hands. Would they allow him to run a car special from the gold car p to Portal City after midnight? It was for them to say.

Hopkins and his accomplices went off to talk it over with some of the other men. When the old freight conductor came back his was silent and was grinning good-naturedly.

“We ain't aint to make the company lose any good money that comes a rolling down the hill if it Miller Norcross,” he said. “Cinch those lone Strathcona hurry-hoys fit all you can get out of them and if you'll lend us the loan of the wires, we'll pass the word to let the special come on through.”

It was sure the funniest strike I ever saw or heard of, and I guess the boss thought an tea—with all this good-natured bargaining back and forth—but there was nothing more said, and I carried the word to Mr. Perkins directing him to his arrangements made for the running of a special train from Strathcona for the hurry folks.

Fast that, things rocked along until the hours of the big stand-downs clock in the dispatcher's room pointed to midnight. Norris, who was holding down the commercial wire, came over to the counter rattling just then with a New York message. I saw the bear eyes flick and the little bumpy muscle-wellings of anger come and go on the edge of his jaw as he read it, and then he handed it to me.

“You may endorse that ‘No Answer’ and file it when you go back to the office,” he said shrewdly, and then he was on talking to Donohue, telling him how to handle the trains which were still out and moving to their final destination.

Of course I read the message, I knew there was nothing private about it so far as I was concerned since it had been given me to put away in the files. This is what I read:

To G. Norcross, G. M.

Your administration has been a conspicuous failure from the beginning. Compromise with employees on any terms offered and prove strike at all costs. That done you will be directed to wire your resignation to take effect one week from today to G. Dunton, President.

It had hit us at last, not a decent request mind you but a blunt brutal demand. The boss was fired. No word had come from Mr. Dunton and there could be but one reason for his silence. In some way perhaps through the late know-ing of the stock the New Yorkers had squeezed him out. He was shot dead in the fenders.

I didn't understand how the chief could take it so quietly unless it was because he had been hammered so long and so hard that nothing mattered any more. Anyhow he was just standing there talking soberly to Donohue before the strike started.
